

“IMPUNITY IS CONTAGIOUS”

GALUH WANDITA
INTERNATIONAL CENTER FOR TRANSITIONAL JUSTICE

In this paper, I will outline some the main findings from a study conducted by ICTJ and KontraS on transitional justice in Indonesia, 13 years since the fall of Soeharto. I will then discuss some of these patterns in relation to Timor-Leste. And finally, make some observations on where we may go from here.