Cindy FAN 范芝芬
Vice Provost for International Studies and Global Engagement
Professor of Geography, UCLA

Dr. Fan is responsible for UCLA’s global strategy, international partnerships and global engagement. She also oversees the International Institute that comprises more than 25 interdisciplinary research centers and degree programs. Dr. Fan received her B.A., M.Phil. and Ph.D. from respectively the University of Hong Kong, Chinese University of Hong Kong and Ohio State University. Her book China on the Move is a pioneering study of rural-urban migration and split households in China. Dr. Fan is a recipient of numerous awards including the UCLA Distinguished Teaching Award and she regularly contributes to the New York Times and other media outlets.

Gene D. BLOCK 蔡洪滨
Chancellor, UCLA

Gene Block became Chancellor of UCLA in August 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees the university’s three-part mission of education, research and service. He has defined academic excellence, civic engagement, diversity, and financial security as top priorities for his administration. An expert in neuroscience, Dr. Block’s current research focuses on the effects of aging in the nervous system and how it impacts biological timing in mammals, including humans. He holds faculty appointments in psychiatry and biobehavioral sciences in the UCLA David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. Chancellor Block holds a bachelor’s degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master’s and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon. Before coming to UCLA, Chancellor Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia.

King-Kok CHEUNG 张敬珏
Faculty Director, UCEAP Study Centers, China
Professor of English and Asian American Studies, UCLA

Born and raised in Hong Kong, King-Kok Cheung received her Ph.D. in English from UC Berkeley. She is a professor of English at UCLA, and faculty director of the UCEAP Study Centers in China; author of Articulate Silences and Chinese American Literature without Borders (forthcoming), and coeditor of The Heath Anthology of American Literature. She has held visiting professorships at Harvard, BFSU, PKU, HKU, and Hanover University. She is recipient of an ACLS fellowship, a Mellon fellowship, a Fulbright fellowship, a UCHRI fellowship, a resident fellowship from the Center for Advanced Study in the behavioral sciences (Stanford), and the Hoshi Hoshide Distinguished Teaching Award.

Bernard S. CHU 褚邦俊
Director of Capital Construction Projects, Johnson & Johnson (Worldwide Engineering & Technical Operations)

Bernie earned his B.S. in civil engineering from UCLA in 1998, and his M.S. at USC in 1999. At UCLA he was an active leader and officer for the Association of Chinese Americans, Asian Pacific Coalition, and American Society of Civil Engineers. Based in Shanghai since 2010, Bernie has led the design/construction of high value projects for FLSmidth, Bosch, and Novartis. Bernie currently leads strategic capital projects in the APAC for Johnson & Johnson, and is working towards his global executive M.B.A. at USC/Jiaotong. Bernie is the current vice president of the UCLA Shanghai Network.
Royce HAUW 河政玖
Partner, DHR International
Royce Hauw is currently a partner at DHR Shanghai, a retained executive search firm based in Chicago, USA. Royce serves the consulting and executive recruitment needs of many of the largest global consumer products and service companies, with functional expertise within the human resource and operations practices. Before joining the executive search industry, Royce held several senior level positions at Samsung, Razorfish, and The Boston Consulting Group while working throughout Asia and the Americas. Royce is also a regular speaker and contributor on the topics of human capital and organization effectiveness. He received a B.A. in economics from UCLA.

Derek HU 许敏基
Managing Director/Partner, Greater China
Derek Hu is a partner and the greater China country manager of Eric Salmon & Partners, a leading executive search firm. He has set up the operations in greater China, and places key executives in the Asia Pacific region. Prior to Eric Salmon & Partners, Derek was at some of the top U.S. search & consulting firms. Derek currently serves as a board member for Teach for China, a nonprofit foundation which helps China’s young people to get access to a quality education. Derek holds a B.A. in English literature from UCLA and serves on the board of the UCLA Alumni Association.

Freeman SHEN 沈晖
Founder, WM Motor Company
Mr. Freeman H. Shen is the founder, chairman & CEO of WM Motor Company, a start-up company focused on high efficiency smart cars, and the group co-founder and CEO of Pateo Group. He was previously a board member and group vice president of Geely Holding Group, corporate development, M&A, and chairman & CEO of Shanghai Geely Zhaoyuan International; the global holding company of Volvo Car Group. Mr. Shen holds a B.S. in engineering from South China University of Technology, an M.S. in engineering from UCLA, and an M.B.A. from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota.

Ken WU 吴昊
Finance Director, SAIC Motor Corporation Limited
Mr. Ken Wu is finance director of SAIC Motor Corporation Limited. He has led various domestic and cross border merger and acquisition transactions including the acquisitions of MG Rover and Ssangyong Motor, Nanjing Automotive Group, GM India and General Motors IPO. Mr. Wu is familiar with domestic regulations and requirements, as well as investment and financing practice in domestic and international capital markets. He has successfully raised capital and provided funding for the rapid growth of the country’s largest automotive conglomerate. Mr. Wu holds a B.A. in business economics from UCLA, an M.B.A. in operations management and is a Ph.D. candidate at Tongji University.