

Latin Am Studies MA
Winter 2012

Graduate-level courses are numbered 200-299.

Of the nine courses for the Latin American Studies MA, at least five must be at the graduate level (not including LAS 205), with at least one graduate-level course falling in each of the two or three fields.

All coursework must relate to Latin America, eg, any research paper or project must focus on the region. This is specifically true for courses that do not have an exclusive focus on Latin America (marked with an asterisk *).
