

NORTH AFRICAN VIBES

MUSIC FROM MOROCCO, ALGERIA, AND TUNISIA

Los Angeles County Museum of Art and the UCLA Center for Near Eastern Studies present:

NORTH AFRICAN VIBES

MUSIC FROM MOROCCO, ALGERIA, AND TUNISIA

Thursday, July 31, 8:00 pm
Bing Theater, LACMA

The region known as the Maghreb or North Africa is home to a vibrant array of musical styles reflecting its long history of blending indigenous and Islamic traditions with African, European, and Middle Eastern influences. The ensemble of distinguished singers and musicians will showcase captivating Arab-Andalusian melodies from Granada, the uplifting vocals of Jewish heritage songs from across the Maghreb, and the pulsating rhythms of Ra'i which have swept around the world and found a home in Los Angeles.

Featuring:

Henry Azra, qanun

Fella Oudani, vocals

Raphael Skouri, vocals

& more

Free admission, but tickets required. Open seating.

For ticket information, please call the LACMA box office at (323) 857-6010.

LACMA is located at 5905 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90036.

Free parking is available after 7 pm at the 6th Street parking garage (located just east of Fairfax).
