

SOUTH ASIAN STUDIES MINOR

The South Asian Studies minor is designed for students who wish to augment their major with concerted study of the history, culture, society, and languages of South Asia. This is comprised of Sri Lanka, India, Pakistan, Nepal, Bhutan, Bangladesh, and the Maldives, but in certain respects the study of Afghanistan and Myanmar (especially in the period when Burma was under British colonial rule) might legitimately be included under the rubric of South Asian studies.

Preparation Requirements

❑ History Prep (1 Course)

History 9A: Introduction to Asian Civilizations: History of India

❑ Language Requirement-Elementary Level (Up to 3 Courses)

Completion of the third term of a South Asian language (e.g., Hindi- South Asian 40C or 40R, Sanskrit-South Asian 110C)*

*The language requirement can also be fulfilled via a language proficiency exam. Contact the Asian Languages & Cultures Dept, <http://www.alc.ucla.edu> for more information. If you have tested completely out of the requirement, please present a copy of the results to the Academic Counselor, 10357 Bunche.

In lieu of Hindi or Sanskrit, students may, upon petition, demonstrate proficiency in some other South Asian language, such as Gujarati, Bengali, Marathi, Tamil, Telugu, Pashto, or Urdu, by either a placement examination to be administered at UCLA, or by approval of an alternative and recognized course of language study. Students will need to seek out UCLA professors who are capable of determining proficiency.

To enter the minor, students must be in good academic standing (a 2.0 grade-point average or better); have completed 45 units, and have completed History 9A. After satisfying these requirements, students may declare the South Asian Studies minor upon consultation with the Academic Counselor.

Upper Division Requirements (5 Courses)

❑ Upper Division Electives (5 Courses)

Five Upper Division courses with a South Asian focus from at least three different departments (i.e., no more than two from any single department). See reverse for course list.

Please note the following:

- ❖ All courses for the minor (including preparation courses) must be taken for a letter grade.
- ❖ The GPA for all courses in the minor must be 2.00 or higher.
- ❖ No more than two Upper Division courses can be from any one discipline or department.
- ❖ No Independent studies courses (199s) may be applied toward the minor.
- ❖ No more than one Upper Division course may be applied toward both this minor and the student's major or another minor.
- ❖ Variable or selected topics courses (e.g., Comp Lit 191) fulfill minor requirements only when the content focuses substantially on South Asia. Other courses with substantial South Asian content of at least 50 percent may be applied toward the minor pending prior approval of a petition filed with the Academic Counselor.
- ❖ Up to 12 units taken through a study abroad program may be applied toward the minor, though no more than 8 of these units will count toward the 20 units of upper-division requirements. The remaining 4 units may apply towards the lower division requirements, however.
- ❖ Successful completion of the minor is indicated on the transcript and diploma.
