Registration is now open!
Application deadline is Friday, June 24, 2011

Representations of African Descendants in Latin America
A 10 day workshop for educators
July 18-29, 2011

The UCLA Latin American Institute and the African Studies Center invite K-12 educators to participate in a 10-day workshop from July 18-29, 2011 to survey the history, popular movements, and artistic expressions of African-descendants and scrutinize the many ways in which they have been portrayed.
*Approval pending 4 LAUSD salary points, qualified for multicultural credit. Option for UCLA Extension credit is also available.

For more information about the workshop, registration and instructions on how to register, please visit www.international.ucla.edu/lai