UCLA International Institute
International Human Rights Film Series

All films screened at
James Bridges Theater
1409 Melnitz Hall

Wednesday, January 28, 6pm

Killer's Paradise
Screening and discussion with Giselle Portenier.

Wednesday, February 18, 6pm

Hidden Sorrows: The Persecution of Romanian Roma during WWII
Screening and discussion with Gabriel Troc, Professor of Anthropology, Babes-Bolyai University, Romania.

Sunday, March 8, 5pm

International Women's Day – Iska's Journey
Screening and discussion with Gail Kligman, Professor of Sociology and CEES Director, UCLA.
Co-sponsored by the Iris Cantor Center and the American Medical Women’s Association.

Wednesday, April 15, 6pm

Paper Cannot Wrap Up Embers / Le papier ne peut pas envelopper la brâse

Wednesday, May 20, 7pm

Standard Operating Procedure
A film by Errol Morris, Germany, 2008.
Screening and Discussion by Susan Slyomovics.

Wednesday, June 10, 7pm

Zimbabwe
A film by Darrell Roodt, Zimbabwe 2008.

Sponsored by the International Institute, African Studies Center, Asia Institute, Center for European and Eurasian Studies, Latin American Institute, Center for Near Eastern Studies, Center for Southeast Asian Studies, and the Center for World Languages.
For more info visit www.international.ucla.edu/humanrights