African & Middle Eastern Studies Major

The African & Middle Eastern Studies Major, part of the International & Area Studies IDP, allows students to analyze the area (or a subregion, e.g., the Middle East, North Africa, the Arab states, Sub-Saharan Africa) from an interdisciplinary and modern perspective. The major seeks to ground students in broad international issues which they can then use to focus on particular concerns of that part of the world.

Preparation for the Major: 6 courses, plus language requirement

Preparation Courses

- Introduction to International & Area Studies (1 course)
  - International & Area Studies 1 with a minimum grade of ‘C’

- International Societies & Cultures (2 courses)

- Foreign Language-Intermediate (Up to 6 courses)
  - Completion of the intermediate year (generally the sixth quarter) of any modern foreign language related to the area (e.g., African Languages 2C, Arabic 102C, Armenian 102C, 105C, Hebrew 102C, Iranian 102C, Turic Languages 102C, 112C, 116C). The language requirement can also be fulfilled in part or in total via a placement exam given through the appropriate language department.

Admission to the Major: Students can declare the major after having completed all preparation courses* with a minimum UC GPA of 2.00 along with International & Area Studies 1 with a grade of “C” or better.

*Completion of the elementary year of the foreign language is acceptable when applying for the major. Completion of the intermediate year of the foreign language is required to fulfill all preparation requirements, but can be done after being accepted to the major. The minimum prep GPA of 2.00 will still need to be met with the inclusion of this course.

- International & Area Studies Senior Seminar (1 course)
  - International & Area Studies 191: Variable Topics in International & Area Studies: Senior Seminar

Note that students may partially fulfill the Area Studies Elective requirement by participating in an International Institute Summer Travel Study program. These programs consist of two courses in and on a particular region of the world. Please consult the Academic Counselor for more information on available programs.

- All courses used towards the major (including preparation for the major courses) must be taken for a letter grade.
- The minimum UC GPA for preparation courses is 2.00. The minimum GPA for upper division courses is 2.00.
- Students may choose to focus their area studies courses on a sub region (e.g., the Middle East, North Africa, the Arab states, Sub-Saharan Africa) but are strongly encouraged not to focus solely on a single country.
- Courses designated with a ‡ are 2-unit courses and must either be taken twice- or two courses from the same category (if applicable) may be taken- to count as one 4-unit course.
